
Summer Art Exhibition Scheduled at Park Hotel Tokyo

Offering Guests Hospitality with Japanese Aesthetics of Season

Park Hotel Tokyo announced on May 23 that it will hold an art exhibition titled “-Firefly of the dark- Kenjiro Takada Art Exhibition Supported by Jack Daniel’s” from June 19 to August 27, 2017.

Park Hotel Tokyo holds four art exhibitions a year, offering guests hospitality with Japanese aesthetics of each season. Fireflies are a common feature of summer night in Japan. For the summer exhibition, artworks which recall the trajectory of lights from fireflies will be displayed in the lobby and on the 31st floor.

Guests can enjoy original cocktail and dessert that perfectly complement the works on exhibit at ART Lounge. In the evening, powerful images with a motif of the exhibition works will be projected on the 30-meter-high wall.

Park Hotel Tokyo General Manager Yoshiaki Hayashi said:

“This will be an exhibition of line drawings using fluorescent pigment, which mimic the trajectory of lights from fireflies. Please enjoy the delicate lines and the objects that are seen inside.”

Park Hotel Tokyo Art Project Director Yoshitomo Fujikawa said:

“Artworks are by Kenjiro Takada, artist who now draws attention with line drawings on thin fabrics. We hope that guests will enjoy artworks which are as if visualizing the rising up energy.”

Park Hotel Tokyo hopes to present guests with the aesthetics of Japan to help them understand Japanese culture.

[About Park Hotel Tokyo (Tokyo, Japan)]

Park Hotel Tokyo, opened in 2003, starts from the 25th floor of Shiodome Media Tower, where the lobby, reception desk, restaurants and a bar are located. The city's view can be enjoyed through the windows behind the reception desk. There are 270 guest rooms, located from the 26th to 34th floors. In 2013, Park Hotel Tokyo put forth a new concept, "Infinite time and space amid cognizant Japanese beauty." In line with the concept, decorations of standard rooms on the 31st floor are in progress. Park Hotel Tokyo is planning to complete all guest room decorations on the 31st floor soon. To offer a memorable experience in various parts of the stay, Park Hotel Tokyo will continue to maximize the role of Japanese aesthetics and hospitality.
