Park Hotel Tokyo started a project in December 2012 in which an artist decorates an entire room. With 31 different artists decorating as many rooms with themes such as "sumo" and "zen," turning the floor into the full-fledged "Artist Floor."

Between August 7 and 27, three Artist Rooms will be open to the public every day. Not only staying guests but also visitors are welcome to visit the rooms.

General Manager Yoshiaki Hayashi said:

"We have completed the 'Artist Floor' where each Artist Room expresses different 'Beauty of Japan' through the eyes of each artist. We hope that guests will enjoy discovering different beauty of Japan expressed by different artists."

Hotel Manager Atsushi Ono said:

"We are proud to announce that all 31 Artist Rooms are finally complete, each encapsulating Japanese beauty. We guarantee that guests will experience an exciting stay surrounded by powerful art in the Artist Rooms."

Park Hotel Tokyo hopes that guests will enjoy "Beauty of Japan" created by these artists.

[About Park Hotel Tokyo]

Park Hotel Tokyo, opened in 2003, is located on the 25th floor and above in the Shiodome Media Tower. The 25th floor has the lobby and reception desk besides restaurants and the bar. The city's view can be enjoyed through the windows behind the reception desk. There are 270 guest rooms, located from the 26th to 34th floors. In 2013, Park Hotel Tokyo put forth a new concept, "Infinite time and space amid cognizant Japanese beauty." In line with the concept, every room on the 31st floor is decorated and turned into Artist Rooms, based on the theme "Beauty of Japan." To offer a memorable experience in various parts of your stay, Park Hotel Tokyo will continue to maximize the role of Japanese aesthetics and hospitality.
