

Summer “ART colours” Exhibition Scheduled at Park Hotel Tokyo to Offer Guests with Japanese Aesthetics of Season

Park Hotel Tokyo announced on March 10 that it will hold an art exhibition titled “Make Your Dreams Come True -Today, I am Drawing-” from June 8 to September 6.

Park Hotel Tokyo welcomes guests with hospitality in the form of “arrangement” expressed through the medium of art. “ART colours,” a series of art exhibitions representing the four seasons of Japan, is held as part of this initiative. In the 33rd exhibition, works by Paralympic Artists, or artists with disabilities around the world, under the theme “Make Your Dreams Come True” will be on exhibit.

Summer is a season when you feel free, open, and full of dynamic energy. For such a season, dynamic works created under the theme “Make Your Dreams Come True” by Paralympic Artists will be exhibited in various places on four floors within the hotel. Also, two Paralympic Artists will participate in the hotel's “Artist in Hotel” project to create an Artist Room each.

Park Hotel Tokyo General Manager Takayuki Suzuki said:

“Through this exhibition held in a hotel welcoming various guests globally, we hope to create a forum for Paralympic Artists to shine, and to support their self-sufficiency.”

Park Hotel Tokyo Art Project Director Yoshitomo Fujikawa said:

“We will welcome all guests with hospitality in a free and open space full of energy through works of Paralympic Artists. Also, by creating common values using art as the medium, we hope to support the self-sufficiency of Paralympic Artists.”

Please enjoy a free and open summer at Park Hotel Tokyo's summer exhibition filled with vibrant energy.
